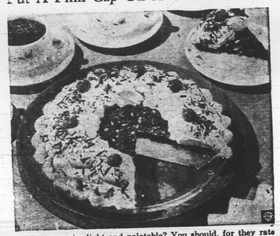
Put A Pink Cap On A Creamince Pie



Like your pies light and palatable? You should, for they rate high on the dessert list and are particularly favored by men. A new pie with a flavor very similar to popular Nesselrode is recommended by the Borden Kitchen. It is a Pink Capped Creaminee Pie. It consists of three layers. The bottom layer is a luscious cream made with a "magic" ingredient — sweetened condensed milk. This layer is covered with rum-flavored mincemeat. Then, top all with a cherry-flavored whipped cream. Pink Capped Creaminee Pie is the dessert to serve the VIP of the house — or when he plans to bring home important business guests.

Pink Capped Creaminee Pie
(Makes 9-inch pie)

1 baked 9-inch pastry shell
1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatine
¼ cup cold water
1 (15-oz.) can Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk
1 egg, separated
1 (9-oz.) package None Such Mince Meat
½ cup light rum
½ pint (1 cup) heavy cream
1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar
¼ cup chopped maraschino cherries, well drained
Whole maraschino cherries, optional
Shaved chocolate, optional

Soften gelatine in cold water in top of double boiler. Let stand 5 minutes. Stir over hot water until dissolved. Add sweetened condensed milk and beaten egg yolk. Stir over ice water about 2 minutes until mixture thickens slightly. Beat egg white until it forms soft peaks; fold into chilled mixture. Pour into pie shell. Chill 10 minutes. Break mincemeat in small pieces in a saucepan; add rum. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Cool slightly. Spread on pie filling. Chill. Whip cream with confectioners' sugar; fold in chopped cherries. Pile on top of pie. If desired, garnish with whipped cream, whole cherries and shaved chocolate.

Appomattox Is A Good Town.

It Is A GOOD TOWN In Which To Live

And, it is a Good Town in Which to DO BUSINESS

All over America the miracle of our generation has been the rapid strides toward better living standards. With the national income at a sustained peak level, employment figures maintained, and production setting amazing records, the general level of living standards has kept pace. This reality has given a new scope to every phase of life. With greater facilities at hand, the American people have embarked upon their opportunity to enter into a golden age of progress. Things that would have been rare luxuries a few years ago, are now accepted as routine "necessities" in many families. The trend toward higher living standards is evident in every family, in all walks of life, and is reflected in the fabulous business done in housing, apparel, automobiles, savings,travel, appliances, furnishings and public utilities and services. And it is reflected in expanded activity in the fields of religion, education and community promotion.

Appomattox is in this parade toward Better living.

As a Growng Town, Appomattox has kept pace with the steady advances in home building, modern conveniences, transportation and general betterment. And a tremendous impetus has been given this trend by the amazingly effective system of American distribution, whereby products that are available anywhere are available everywhere. You do not have to leave your home community to find all the marvelous things morden better living has available. Your local buider can supply you. Your local auto dealer and service station has or can get whatever is available anywhere. Your local banker, timber dealer, telephone company, appliance dealer, hardware store, mortician, etc. has kept abreast with the latest in his line, and contributes to the truth of the statement that nowhere in all the world is the living standard any better than it is right at home!!!!
